The movie starts with a typical New Yorker's homecoming. His owner, Katie, and her son, Toby, dare not tell him that they had to find a new home and leave behind their old friends and neighbors. But Duke quickly learns the truth when he begins to meet the new animal occupants of his new residence: Chloe (an energetic Pomeranian), Daisy (a polite English Bulldog), as well as Mel (a crotchety white cat). Duke is furious about this sudden upheaval in his life and initially refuses to adapt. However, after he befriends two stray kittens that were living at the building's roof, Duke changes his mind. Meanwhile, the rest of the pets set out on a search for their new homes. Their first stop is to find shelter for Chloe and Daisy. Then they need to find their new owners. After they go on an adventure to find their old homes, they finally find all of them and return home with all their new friends.
